OMAGH AREA

Welcome to Culture Night Omagh 2016!

Culture Night, an all-Ireland celebration of culture, creativity and the arts, is returning to the Omagh area for a fourth year this autumn. From 5pm – 10pm on Friday 16 September, locals and visitors will enjoy the unique experience of Culture Night: a FREE night of entertainment, discovery and adventure.

Galleries, historic buildings, artists' studios and culture centres will open their doors to welcome people of all ages to sample the area's cultural and creative offerings for free throughout the evening. A wide variety of organisations including the Royal British Legion and Dún Uladh Cultural Heritage Centre are opening their doors to you on Culture Night. Why not take up this opportunity to come in, look around, ask questions and learn more? See fine art on display at McKenna Galleries and textile art at Tattukeel Design Studio. Learn a new skill with Omagh Ethnic Communities Support Group or watch local film makers showcasing their work at Omagh Community House. Call into Strule Arts Centre for a packed programme including music, poetry readings, dance or join an historic walking tour of Omagh. Visit Mullaghmore House to see period antiques and vintage curiosities and for music and craft, then visit An Creagán Visitor Centre or Dún Uladh Cultural Heritage Centre. At Rylagh Liméilín find out about about boats with Butterlope Farm and enjoy local musicians thanks to Friends of the Glens. Come along and support our local organisations and help make Culture Night 2016 our biggest and best yet.

We are delighted to have so many organisations involved and we hope you enjoy exploring the rich cultural landscape of the Omagh area.
