

Family History Research

Name	Contact Number	E-Mail address	Additional Information
General Register Office NISRA Colby House Stanmillis Court BELFAST BT9 5RR	0300 200 7890	www.nidirect.gov.uk/family-history	Online family history research facility enables you to search historic records from home for as little as 50p Births over 100 years, deaths over 50 years and marriages over 75 years. You can access all records in the Public Search Room – births deaths from 1864 and Marriages from 1845.
Fermanagh Genealogy Centre based at: Enniskillen Castle Museums Enniskillen Co Fermanagh BT74 7HL	028 6632 5000	fgc2012@hotmail.com	An appointment for a free half-hour family history consultation can be booked on the following website: www.enniskillencastle.co.uk (click on 'explore more' and then 'Fermanagh Genealogy Centre') It is also possible to submit an email enquiry.
Enniskillen Library Halls Lane Enniskillen BT74 7DR	028 6632 2886	enniskillenlibrary@librariesni.org.uk	Local public history publications can be viewed which often contain graveyard inscriptions, school roll books going back to c 1870 along with some church records. Ordnance Survey maps available as well as microfilm of local newspapers going back to the early 1800s.

The Mellon Centre Ulster American Folk Park Mellon Road Castletown Omagh Co Tyrone BT78 5QY	028 82256315	www.qub.ac.uk/cms	Reference only collection which contains material about historic and contemporary immigration including return migration, internal migration and emigration relating to Ulster, Ireland, Britain, Europe and the wider world. It is particularly strong in relation to Irish and North American interests in individuals, families and localities as they relate to migration history. Also you can access Newspapers, Journals / Periodicals and Maps (Ordnance Survey).
Omagh Library 1 Spillars Place Irishtown Road Omagh Co Tyrone BT78 1HL	028 82244821	omagh.library@libraries.org.uk	You are able to access Ancestry.com, a Genealogy database, (Library Edition) and browse free of charge. Other Reference material includes the 1901 and 1911 census for Co Tyrone (some earlier also available) Local Newspapers are also available: Tyrone Constitution from 1844 and Ulster Herald from 1902 and Griffith's valuation maps can also be accessed.
Public Record Office 2 Titanic Boulevard Titanic Quarter Belfast BT3 9HQ	028 90534800	www.proni.gov.uk	The Public Record Office for Northern Ireland, PRONI, is the official place of deposit for historical public records of Government Departments (formerly Ministries) and other non-Departmental public organisations such as courts, schools and hospitals. In addition, PRONI has collected a wide range of archives from private sources over the years. These range from a single letter written by an ordinary individual to a vast landed estate archive containing thousands of documents. Other privately deposited archives include the records of churches, businesses and a number of photographic collections. PRONI holds millions of documents that relate chiefly, but not exclusively, to Northern Ireland, They date largely from c.1600 to the present day (with a few dating back as far as the early 13th century).