SECTION 2. Counter Representation

Have you submitted a representation to the council regarding the Draft Plan Strategy?

Yes No

If yes, please provide the Reference Number of your representation and a summary of the issue raised in your representation below.

DPS245 - Retail NI is fully support of the sequential approach to retailing and main town centre uses. It has been demonstrated to work in both Enniskillen and Omagh town centres, which benefit from a lack of any significant out-of-town competition and high levels of independent traders. This results in low vacancy rates by compassion to the UK average, low levels of leakage and good comparison goods offering are observed. The evidence on the ground supports the policy approach as being both sound and logical.

The reduced threshold of 500sqm is well founded and supported by evidence in the FODC 2017, as highlighted in paragraph 4.35 in the policy clarification.

The physical and historical constraints of both Town Centres are also a consideration. To provide flexible and varied floorspace for both national multiples and local independents. Perhaps it would be suitable to undertake a "call for sites" consultation exercise to identify redevelopment sites or where sites can be amalgamated to provide sufficient floorspace for larger convenience and comparison retail units within the town centre boundary. I would also suggest that a 300sqm threshold is introduced for a full assessment of retail impact as well as need for any Retail Warehousing outside of the town centre boundary.

Details of Your Counter Representation

Please provide the reference number of the site-specific representation to which your counter representation relates to:

DPS121

Please give reasons for your counter representation having particular regard to the soundness test(s) identified in the above referenced site-specific representation. Please note that your counter representation must not propose any new changes of the draft Plan Strategy.

The approach in TC01 – Town Centres proposing a lower threshold of 500sqm gross external area outside the PRC accords with paragraph 6.283 of the SPPS, which states:

“Where appropriate the planning authority may choose to apply a lower threshold taking into account local circumstances such as the size, role and function of their town centres. In preparing a LDP Councils will have flexibility to set an appropriate threshold for their area, above which all applications for such development should be accompanied by an assessment of retail impact and need.....”

Policy TC01 does appear to introduce a more restrictive test in respect of the Primary Retail Core. This should be amended to proposals outside the town centre to be consistent with the SPPS. The introduction of a lower figure will not inhibit investment or flexibility within the town centre. It does not mean that any proposal >500sqm is unacceptable. However, it will ensure robust and up-to-date evidence is provided to consider the individual and cumulative impacts of such a proposal on the town centre and road network.

The SPPS places an upper threshold of 2,500sqm gross external area, but there is no lower threshold.

The lower threshold will vary according to the specifics of each town, its sphere of influence/catchment, existing retail floorspace (convenience/comparison/discount/retail warehouse) and population/expenditure will all be factors that will need to be considered.

A one size fits all would not be robust or sound, hence the SPPS allows for flexibility through the LDP process. The 1,000sqm is not historic or arbitrary as retail floorspaces have reduced significantly.

The representation seeks to make a direct comparison to retail planning policies 10years ago in England. However, has no cognisance to the independent reports carried out by GL Hearn for the DOE in January 2014 in respect of Town Centres and Retailing. A Retail Capacity Study produced by Strategic Planning in November 2014 or the recent NEXUS report produced in March 2017, for the Council, following a retail and commercial leisure needs assessment.

The size, role and function of town centres in Fermanagh & Omagh District Council area and the average size of existing retail units would be a material consideration in providing a benchmark for the floorspace threshold.

The Nexus assessment concluded that due to the size, scale and function of the District that 500sqm was an appropriate threshold to apply.
