Your wedding day is special to you and important to us . . .

Personal Ceremony:

A Civil Ceremony, conducted by a Registrar from Fermanagh and Omagh District Council, provides you with the opportunity to tailor the Ceremony and make it personal to you, ensuring it's a day to remember.

Family members and/or friends are encouraged to take an active part in your Ceremony which helps to create that personal touch.

You may include live music, poems, readings, additional personal vows, remembrance candles and a sand or hand-fasting ceremony which will make the Ceremony unique to you both.

Where Civil Ceremonies take place:

Within the Fermanagh and Omagh District area you may have a ceremony conducted at an approved venue or a registry office.

Approved Venues: There are a number of approved venues throughout the District including hotels, castles, National Trust properties and an island to name a few. Please contact the Registrar for a full list of Approved Venues.

Fee: from £250 (inclusive)

Registrars Office: The Townhall, Enniskillen, County Fermanagh and The Grange, Omagh, County Tyrone.

Fee: from £163 (inclusive)

Days & Times:

Monday – Saturday, including Bank Holidays.

Please contact the Registration Office for information on ceremony times.

Make a Booking:

It is essential that the Registrar is booked to officiate at your Ceremony prior to confirming any other bookings. Registration staff will guide you in relation to the submission of marriage/civil partnership paperwork and the legal documents required.
