

POLLINATOR ID

Bee-licious
helping our pollinators

Can you spot any of these common pollinators in your local park or garden?

INSECTS

More than 1,500 insect species are known to pollinate plants in the UK and almost any insect that visits flowers will aid pollination.

Common Green Lacewing

Marmalade Hoverfly

Red-tailed Bumblebee

Common Carder Bumblebee

Small Tortoiseshell Butterfly

Six Spot Burnet Moth

Soldier Beetle

Honey Bee

Ashy Mining Bee

PLANTS

Can you spot any of these pollinator friendly plants in your local park or garden?

Native species that help pollinators

Birds-foot Trefoil <input type="checkbox"/>	Bush vetch <input type="checkbox"/>	Hawthorn <input type="checkbox"/>	Willow <input type="checkbox"/>

Holly <input type="checkbox"/>	Bluebell <input type="checkbox"/>	Red Clover <input type="checkbox"/>	Ivy <input type="checkbox"/>

Garden plants that help pollinators

Comfrey Species <input type="checkbox"/>	English Lavender <input type="checkbox"/>	Foxglove <input type="checkbox"/>	Chives <input type="checkbox"/>

Plants that need pollinators

	Apple and Pear <input type="checkbox"/>		Raspberry/Blackcurrant/Strawberries <input type="checkbox"/>
---	---	--	--

This leaflet has been created by Bee-licious, a partnership project between 8 Northern Ireland Councils.

Bee-licious is supported by the National Lottery, through the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF), 'Our Heritage Programme'.

For more information go to: www.hlf.org.uk

