Introduction

Fermanagh and Omagh District Council (the Council) is committed to working in partnership with others to safeguard children from all forms of abuse, neglect and/or exploitation. The Council advocates that everyone has a right to live free from harm, to be safe and harm caused to children is not acceptable.

Through this policy, the Council aims to ensure that a holistic approach to safeguarding is embedded within all Council services, and that Elected Members, employees, casual workers, agency workers, grant-aided organisations, contractors and volunteers understand their role and responsibilities in relation to safeguarding.

This policy emphasises that safeguarding should be paramount to everyone and recognises the Council's responsibility with regards to safeguarding, and the protection of children as far as reasonably practicable.

Definition of Key Terms

- A child, for the purpose of this policy, is any young person under the age of 18.
- The risk of harm occurs in all socio-economic, racial and ethnic groups regardless of gender, age and sexual orientation.
- Within the policy, the term 'safeguarding' includes activities which prevents harm occurring in the first place (Safeguarding Procedures) as well as any activity which protects children where abuse or harm has taken place or is likely to occur (Reporting Procedures).
- Abuse can be a single, or repeated, act. It can take place within many situations including: the home, school, communities, public places, clubs, societies, etc. There are different types of abuse (see Appendix One) and a child can be abused in more than one way and by one or more perpetrators.
- Being mistreated or abused (sometimes called 'Significant Harm') is defined as sexual abuse, physical abuse, neglect or emotional abuse.
- A 'child at risk of harm' is any person who is aged under 18 years whose exposure to harm through abuse, exploitation or neglect may be increased by their personal characteristics, and/or life circumstances.

Policy Aim

The aim of the Fermanagh and Omagh District Council Child Safeguarding Policy is to put in place and improve upon safeguarding arrangements for children to protect them from abuse, exploitation and/or neglect.

This policy not only demonstrates how the Council will meet its legal obligations, but will also act to reassure the public, service users, Elected Members, employees and individuals/organisations working on behalf of the Council on what they can expect Fermanagh and Omagh District Council to do to safeguard children.

Objectives

By working in accordance with this policy, Fermanagh and Omagh District Council will:

1. Promote 'zero-tolerance' of abuse, exploitation and/or neglect towards children.
2. Seek to continually monitor and improve upon existing safeguarding arrangements for children.
3. Promote a continuous learning approach ensuring that appropriate training is available for all Members, employees and volunteers.
4. Implement robust recruitment, selection and management procedures.
5. Respond appropriately to all concerns reported.
6. Develop and implement effective procedures for recording and responding to incidents, ensuring confidentiality is maintained where appropriate.
7. Develop and implement effective procedures for recording and reporting any allegations or suspicions of harm or abuse.
8. Promote the welfare and wellbeing of individuals during and within Council services, including during the planning of services.
9. Maintain a good level of safe working practice at all times to minimise risk to anyone that encounters Elected Members, employees, volunteers and agency workers.
10. Ensure that effective and co-ordinated multi-agency responses are provided.
11. Influence the way the organisation thinks about harm to children and adults at risk by embedding a culture which recognises every person's right to respect and dignity, honesty, humanity and compassion in every aspect of their life.

Underpinning Principles

Safeguarding is the responsibility of every individual in Northern Ireland across all disciplines and sectors.

1. Paramountcy: The welfare, and best interests, of the child is paramount.
2. Parental Responsibility: Parental responsibility means all the rights, duties, powers, responsibilities and authority, which by law a person, with the parental responsibility of a child, has in relation to the child and their property.

3. Prevention: It is better to take action before harm occurs.
4. Proportionality: The least intrusive response appropriate to the risk presented.
5. Protection: Support and representation for those in greatest need.
6. Partnership: Local solutions through services working with their communities. Communities have a part to play in preventing, detecting and reporting neglect and abuse.

Child protection is the process of protecting individual children identified as either suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm as a result of abuse or neglect. Safeguarding, and promoting the welfare of children, is a broader term than child protection. It encompasses protecting children from maltreatment, preventing impairment of children's health or development, and ensures children grow up in safe and nurturing circumstances.

All children have a right to protection against abuse, neglect, exploitation and violence and the Council has a statutory duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people.

A successful approach to the safeguarding of children and adults at risk requires multi agency collaboration and the recognition of individual's wellbeing and welfare at the heart of the organisation.

The diagram below outlines good practice in relation to safeguarding:

Appendix One - Forms of Abuse

Abuse: A single or repeated act, or lack of appropriate action, occurring within any relationship where there is an expectation of trust, which causes harm or distress to another individual or violates their human or civil rights.

Abuse is the misuse of power and control that one person has over another and may be perpetrated by a wide range of people, including those who are usually physically and/or emotionally close to the individual and on whom the individual may depend upon and trust.

Harm: The impact on the victim of abuse, exploitation or neglect. It is the result of any action whether by commission or omission, deliberate or as the result of a lack of knowledge or awareness which may result in the impairment of physical, intellectual, emotional, or mental health or well-being.

Some of the main forms of abuse may include:

1. Physical Abuse (physical force or mistreatment of an individual)
2. Sexual Violence and Abuse (behaviour of a sexual nature which is unwanted or takes place without consent, understanding or illegally).
3. Psychological / Emotional Abuse (behaviour which is psychologically harmful or may inflict mental distress by threat, humiliation or other verbal/non-verbal conduct).
4. Financial Abuse (actual or attempted act(s) of theft, fraud or burglary).
5. Institutional Abuse (mistreatment or neglect by either an individual or a regime within an organisation or institution).

8. Domestic Violence and Abuse (threatening behaviour, violence or abuse on an individual, where they and the perpetrator have been intimate partners or family members).
9. Human Trafficking / Modern Slavery (the acquisition and movement of people by improper means, including force, threat or deception).
